On what should have been a great day, I killed someone
I could never forget that day
All because of some stranger
for the first time
And things just snowballed from there
Not only did our agency got targeted even my parents were abducted by them
But what I certainly didn't expect was that the man I killed was none other than the only son of Yu Changhai, Qingcheng sect's leader!

It's all the fault of those damn cur from Qingcheng Sect!

My parents are being taken towards North Mt Heng City...

I have to save them no matter what!

All because of one spur of moment of acting in the name of justice, Lin Pu Zhi found himself being enrolled in such a disaster.
Unfortunately for him, this was just the beginning of yet more tragedies to come.
动

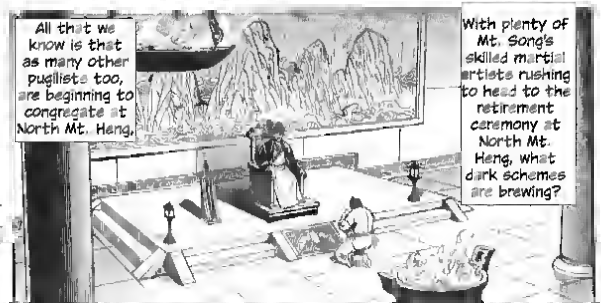
For, indeed, he was about to face a much more cruel reality.

To Lin Pingzhi, fate was but a thing beyond his control and understanding.
However to certain people, not only is one's fate within one's control, one too can gain control over the fate of others.

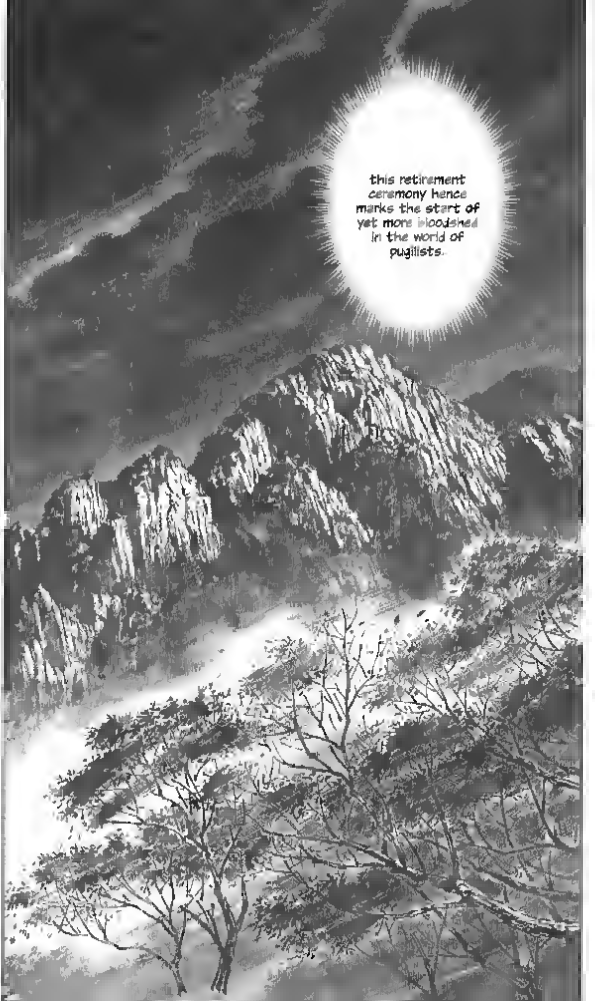
In order to better combat the evil heretic cults, there's been a force that has been force in the past six to seventy years. And that is none other than the Alliance of the Five Mountains' Sword Sects
The five sects vowed to assist and support each other so as to maintain justice in the martial arts realm. And right now, the head of the Alliance is none other than this man,
Zuo Lengchan

and all the preparations have been made
Master! Master Ding Yi, Master Lu Bo, Master Fei Shan and their disciples have arrived at North Mt. Heng City

Good. The side of the orthodox and the heretics have made it clear that we cannot tolerate each other.
North Heng Sect's leader Lu Zhengfeng wants to wash his hands off these affairs just like that? As if it's that easy!



All that we know is that as many other pugilists too, are beginning to congregate at North Mt. Heng.
With plenty of Mt. Song's skilled martial artists rushing to head to the retirement ceremony at North Mt. Heng, what dark schemes are brewing?



this retirement ceremony hence marks the start of yet more bloodshed in the world of pugilists.

Thanks to Linghu Chong's help, Yi Lin was able to escape from Tian Boguang's clutches
Ever since leaving the cave, she has been running as fast as she could till dawn and now she's finally arrived at Heng Yang City

Got to find my teacher!
Haha, little lamb, ya still can't run away from me!
What?!

This is the last time you're getting away!

N-no way!

P-please no...

If you don't kick up a fuss and follow me, I won't do anything to you but if you still wanna rebel I'll strip you naked right here and let all the people on the streets laugh at you!

W-what do you think you're doing?!

Come on! Nobody's saving you anyway!
Now, you shall accompany me for a drink!
You've got looks that can be said to captivate even the birds and beasts so it's like this inn is made just for you!
Wait. If he's here does it mean Brother Lau is dead?
Brother Lau...

TN: He's using an idiom here that literally means (a beauty so dazzling that her looks can) make the fish sink (dive down) and wild geese fall; one who would make wild geese alight and fish dive down for shame. The name of the inn is called the Returning Geese.

Haha!

and because it was very dark last night, neither Yi Lin nor Tian Bagua had taken a good look at his face.
His sudden appearance took the two aback.

A toast!

This voice— it's...!
You!
Me!
